Schurz, Carl—Continued.
reports condition of Fremont's army to Lincoln, II, 345, 346 in campaign of Army of Virginia, II, 347-379 efficiency of, as officer, II, 350, 351, 359, 380, 381 marches to Cedar Mountain, II, 353-356
first American battle of, II, 356-359 in second Bull Run, II, 361-377, 380 experiences of, as division commander, II, 369-379 brigade and battery added to command of, II, 371 ordered to retreat, II, 374-376 on the march to Centreville, II, 376, 377
to Fairfax Court-House, II, 378 covers retreat from Bull Run, II, 377 encamped within fortifications of Washington, II, 379, 387, 397 controversy of, with McDowell, II, 384-386
Sigel's corps reorganized (Eleventh), II, 387 Lincoln's letter to, II, 392-395 interview of, with Lincoln, II, 395, 396 promotion of, II, 404
in battle of Chancellorsville, II, 409-431 anxiety of, over position of Eleventh Corps, II, 412-420, 440, 441 unable to change Gen. Howard's opinion, II, 416-443 commands Third Division of Eleventh Corps, II, 406 division of, praised, II, 407 distressed at criticism of Eleventh Corps, II, 432-443 official report of, II, 434-436, 442 publication of report refused, II, 435, 436 asks for court of inquiry, II, 436-438, 442 applies for hearing before "Committee on the Conduct of the War," II, 438
United States Senator, I, 68
Secretary of the Interior, I, 231, 327; II, 405 speech of, at Rondout (1880), I, 327 courteous reception of, at nunnery, III, 3 impressions and experiences of, at Gettysburg, III, 4-40 command of Eleventh Corps devolves upon, III, 6 views of, in relation to successful military tactics, III, 41-44 encounter of, with Mosby, III, 44-46

Schurz, Carl—Continued,
commits breach of discipline, III, 47-49 goes to Washington on behalf of Eleventh Corps, III, 52 tribute of, to General Tyndale, III, 53, 54 experiences of, in hill-regions of the South, III, 56-58, 66-71 receives contradictory orders from General Hooker, III, 61-66 first meeting of, with General Grant, III, 68 disturbed at dinner by a falling shell, III, 69 premonition of death, III, 71-73
first meeting of, with General Sherman, III, 75 hears of the victory of Missionary Ridge, III, 76, 77 witnesses amusing incident, III, 78-80 endures hardships during Knoxville campaign, III, 80-84 complimented by General Sherman, III, 84 learns of General Hooker's unjust report and demands court of inquiry, III, 85-92 meets General Hooker at White House dinner, III, 92 assigned to new command, III, 95 first impressions of, respecting Andrew Johnson, III, 95-97 quits army temporarily, III, 101 participates in Presidential campaign, III, 106 reports at War Department for duty, III, 108 employed on various missions and is assigned to duty, III, 108-110 hears rebel bullets last time, III, 111 questions wisdom of Sherman-Johnston agreement, III, 114 resigns commission in army, III, 117
his estimate of the American soldier, III, 118-122 observations of, on bravery, III, 122-126, 130-132, 136 military genius no help in civil government, III, 126-128 some of the evils of war, III, 132-136, 140-142 goes to Washington to greet old comrades, III, 137, 145 letter of, concerning trial of conspirators, III, 145-147 called to Washington, by President, for conference, III, 139, 153, 157, 158 attends spiritualistic stance, III, 154-157 entrusted with gathering information